

Trent Gomez-Vidal

Designer of CX Pro, a 0-to-1 enterprise controller for emerging spherical entertainment technology, opening a revenue stream projected to generate $XM over 5 years.

Experience

Product Designer, Cosm - Live Broadcasting Tooling, B2B/2C

Nov 2023 - Jan 2026

- Reduced operator training time by 66%, saving $67.2K annually and growing, by building a user feedback pipeline and iterating with end-to-end UX cycles to reduce user cognitive burden.
- Supported a $XM customer-facing product launch by leading discovery and successfully pitching a design direction for non-specialist users.
- Adapted designs to align with architectural constraints by partnering with engineering teams to balance product goals with implementation speed.
- Built the B2B wing of LightPen, Cosm's design system, with defined tokens and usage guidelines to ensure designers can easily navigate between multiple products.
- Partnered with designers to refine UI of consumer mobile and desktop flows, and produced promotional assets held to brand standards set by NFL, NBA, MLB, and more.

Product Designer, Eventus - Fintech Analytics, B2B, SaaS

Jul 2021 - Jun 2023

- Drove user satisfaction by 72% of Validus, a market analysis tool, by re-designing the home dashboard from jobs-to-be-done research insights.
- Partnered with financial market domain experts to define parameters of nuanced trading practices to create dynamic data visualizations that slashed taskflow clicks by +50%.
- Executed research cycles by conducting user interviews, analyzing bounce rates, and ran usability tests to validate problems and measure impact of solutions before shipping.
- Synthesized research into empathy maps, affinity maps, and user journeys to document findings, prioritize work, and guide designs.

Motion Designer, ICONIC Protein - (B2C, Fitness Nutrition)

May 2019 - Sep 2021

- Designed consumer-facing web and mobile experiences, producing responsive layouts, visual assets, and interaction designs aligned with brand goals.
